History.--s. 10, ch. 2008-249.

Description of Mission and Results: The FMCDF was formed in 2010 and its sole mission is to financially support Florida Missing Children's Day. Each year we collect contributions from law enforcement agencies, businesses and private donors to provide financial support for the event. The dollars are used for operational costs to put on the event like rentals of tents, chairs, sound equipment, stage etc. We also fund awards to local "citizen hero's" that have saved lives as well as a statewide essay contest as well as victim families travel/hotel expenses. The FMCDF has supported Missing Children's Day since 2010 and has been a vital financial support for FDLE's ability to put on the event.

Description of Plan for Next 3 Years:

The next 3 years will be the same as the past 5 years- the Foundation is committed to financially supporting FDLE to ensure that each year the State honors and recognizes victims and families as well as first responders on Florida's Missing Children's Day.
